Heavy Live Stock Losses Reported in Northeastern Utah.

MANY SAVED BY FEEDING

FARMERS FIND A GOOD MARKET FOR THEIR HAY.

Four Criminals Sent to the Pen By Judge Dusenberry - Serious Charge Against a Lake Shore Man - M. Pleasant Officer Fires the Jail-Richfield Bank.

(From the Herald's Correspondent.)
 Vernal, Feb. 5.—Owing to the deep snow and cold weather of the recent days, a great many sheep have been brought to Ashley valley for feed. John Reader, who lives one mile south of Vernal, is feeding 3,500 head of sheep on his farm. A. R. Hunsley is feeding 1,500 head just out of town. Edward Sams, near Lodi, Utah, is feeding 2,000, and, in fact, all of the sheepmen have large flocks at home, trying to pull them through.

Sheep that are out on the range are dying every day. There were some that were so far out in the bad lands that they have been left to rot in, and heavy losses are reported in some instances. A party just in from the east side of Green river reports losses of 1,000 head. Sheepmen are suffering over the valley daily in search of hay, and the farmers are realizing on their large crops of hay.

Word comes from White river, over in Colorado, that heavy losses are being sustained in cattle. One prominent cattlemen of a better feed can be purchased at a reasonable figure, and says he will attempt to drive his herd in to the mountains.

Congressman Kline is now coming in for consideration for his work in debating the proposed delay in the passage of the bill. He is a member here, representative of party, are unanimous in their expression of approval. The democratic party is certainly to be congratulated on its representative in congress.

Nels Jensen of Kelton was in Brigham this week. He left there on the 31st ult. He just met two men from the Hogup range, who reported that the sheep in the heat of condition. Most of the flocks have turned around, and are working north. There are many sheep in the vicinity of Kelton for good sleighing. The other day a flock of horses got into a bad place. They were kept a few days and re-sold for $1.50. These lambs were in poor condition when winter overtook them, and got the worst mouth. A little feeding seems to be bringing them around.

OFF FOR KLONDIKE.

Two Men Start For the Frozen North.

Minut, Feb. 5.—P. O. Madsen and A. O. Anderson have said goodbye to friends here, and started for the frozen north of Alaska. They go direct to Seattle, and thence take steamer for the land of gold. When asked as to when they expected to return, the men replied that they were not sure. Mr. Anderson was a prosperous furniture merchant at this place, but sold out his business, thinking that the state where they were going had been anything but reassuring for the sheepmen. Now that the weather has moderated, they are feeling somewhat better and hope from now on that their flocks will pull through the remainder of the winter without serious loss.

LAKE SHORE MAN'S MISTAKE.

Entered Mrs. Tracey's Room and Is Charged With Assault.

Provo, Feb. 5.—It was reported at the sheriff's office this morning that John Dudley of Lake Shore had last night broken into the home of Mrs. Tracey, and that he had attempted to assault her. According to the report received here, Dudley broke into the home during the night, and entering Mrs. Tracey's sleeping apartment, assaulted her while in bed. The lady opposed him with all her strength, and being overpowered, Dudley attempted to choke her into submission. In this also he was unsuccessful.

Constable Menden was informed of the facts and immediately went to Spanish Fork, and swore to a complaint charging Dudley with an assault with intent to commit rape. The warrant was placed in the hands of Deputy Sheriff Henry, who at once set out to take Dudley into custody.

Later reports of the affair indicate that Dudley was not guilty of any evil intention. His home address that of Mrs. Tracey, and it has been his habit, since late at night, to enter his room through a window. He was intoxicated last night, it is said, and went through the wrong window by mistake.

He was taken to the jail, and is now in custody. The case will be heard in court.

"Licked" By the Kids.
 Holden Correspondence Millard Progress: Sunday night a disgraceful row occurred here. It seems that while Citizen Hawley was going towards the meeting house he was "holed" at by some boys, tracing his steps to where the boys were, he told them he could lick the whole crowd, whereupon three kids, ranging in age from 16 to 18, accepted the challenge and gave him quite a drubbing.
